

Welcome to Galvin and Morgan

Galvin & Morgan is a general practice firm located in Delmar, New York. Our firm is active in State and Federal civil litigation at both the trial and appellate levels. The practice includes many areas of law including:

- • real property
- • property rights
- • commercial and corporate law
- • administrative law
- • estate planning and administration
- • taxation, employment and labor law.

We are committed to achieving justice for our clients, and have gained a reputation for capable and aggressive legal representation. Our experienced partners, associates and support staff provide competent advice and create effective solutions for our clients.

All clients are treated equally as our firm strives to achieve the best possible legal remedy for each. Many times, the attorneys work together to accomplish a client's goals which provides additional expertise to each case. We communicate and consult regularly with our clients to keep them advised of progress which allows each client to make informed and timely decisions when appropriate. Every aspect of our firm is dedicated to serving each client's best interest.

Payment schedules can accommodate any number of particular needs, based on each client's individual situation. We pride ourselves in thorough and qualified legal work, and highly value the trust of our clients.

Please explore our website to learn more about our attorneys and what we can do for you.